Despite owning only

This is the story of an amateur gardener's journey to addiction: her attempts to buy lion dung from London Zoo and to build her own cold frame; her disinhibited composting and creative approach to design; her prejudices (roses, purple flowers, people with orchards);

and her passions:
quinces, salad-leaves,
herbs, Japanese
greens and ancient British apples. It is a story of where fantasy

consuming love and,
most of all, of how
gardening, however
peculiar, can save
your life.

the things Cricket

on--most of all,

first publication,
the second edition
of 'Places of the Soul' has brought Christopher Day's
classic text into the 21st century. This
new edition of the
seminal text
reminds us that
true sustainable
design does not

simply mean
energy efficient
building.

Sustainable
buildings must
provide for the
'soul'. For
Christopher Day
architecture is not just about a
building's
appearance, but

how the building is
experienced.

'Places of the Soul'
presents buildings
as environment,
intrinsic to their
surroundings, and
offers design
principles that will
open the eyes of
the architecture
student and

professional alike,
presenting ideas
quite different to
the orthodoxy of
modern
architectural
education.

architect, self-
builder, professor
and sculptor have

all added to the development of his
ideas that
encompass issues
of economic and
social
sustainability,
commercial
pressures and
consensus design.
This book presents
these ideas and
