Belfast is the capital and largest city of Northern Ireland and the second largest city on the island of Ireland after Dublin, the capital of the Republic of Ireland. Situated at the mouth of the River Lagan on Belfast Lough, Belfast is surrounded by low hills. This figure refers only to the Belfast City Council area whose borders date back to the 1950. A visit to Belfast will be rewarded by a glimpse of a unique city that has finally begun to celebrate, its place as a cultural meeting-point of Britain and Ireland. Belfast is certainly exhibiting an air of determined optimism, with new hotels, bars, restaurants, clubs and shops opening at an incredible rate. It is a city that is proud of its Victorian and Edwardian heritage. Tourism is on the increase in Northern Ireland, especially among those seeking a weekend away or short break in Ireland. Wink Travel Guides introduce you to the best world travel destinations, in a clear and concise way, illustrated by photos.

The Best and Most Unique Ireland Travel Guide So, you're planning to visit Ireland? Excellent decision, you'll find us to be a warm and friendly people who'll make you feel truly welcome. We don't like to boast, but we really have it all: Ireland combines a strong and vibrant culture stretching back thousands of years with vibrant cities featuring all the perks of modern life. We're a small nation and we like to keep our options open. And the good news is that because the entire island is less than 85 thousand square kilometers, you really can come here and see (and do!) everything. Have you come to experience our dynamic and cosmopolitan cities? Or have you come to surf the world-famous Aileen's Wave? Are you hankering to go horseback riding through the surf or to spend a day at the races? Whichever activity makes your heart beat faster, you'll find something here to make you happy. There are two important things you need to know about Ireland and the Irish. The first is that we're a proud and passionate race. When we commit to something we run with it all the way, whether it's a TV comedy about a trio of priests or a way of life that includes good food, good music and connection with the very soil of this island we live on. Don't worry, though; we're a welcoming people and we'll be very happy to share our passions with you. The second is that we love to have fun, and if that comes with dressing up and -- preferably -- a parade, then we'll be so much the happier. We have festivals and celebrations throughout the year, and during the summer you'll find at least one somewhere in the country every weekend. We celebrate everything from matchmaking to Halloween, and we don't do it in a small way. This guide will guide you through a country as diverse as beautiful; where to sleep, the best restaurants and those little tips and recommendations which can turn a regular vacation into something completely magical. You'll be helped through how to use the local traffic (not very complicated) and what you need to do if you want to get into the best nightclubs (slightly more complicated). This book is a very useful guide to travel through Ireland, helping you discover one of the most beautiful islands of Europe. Start your reading experience by finding out the essential reasons why you should consider choosing Ireland for your next holiday. Experience a whole new world when you come and visit Ireland. In this total guide you will find: Areas covered: History lessons/ Best museums/ Surfing/ Adventure land off road trips/ Wildlife spotting/ Ireland neighborhood/ Medical Tourism/ Learn English in Ireland /Cooking and drinking/ Accommodation/ Staying safe/ Music/ Festivities - General Information of each area - Area Transportation (how to get around i.e. car, bus, taxi, train, bicycle, etc. and how much it would cost) - Sightseeing (Best Sights to See, Off the Beaten Path) - Best shopping (where are the major shopping districts and what they are known for) - Bargain Alternatives (where the locals shop to avoid the high tourist crowds) - Things to do (recreation outdoor, indoor, events and festivals) - Local Food Specialties - Farmer's and Fish (Meat) Markets (Locations, dates and times of various markets) - Language, Political and Etiquette Considerations (What the average tourist should know and how to get along with the locals. Weekends on the road: The ultimate travel guide to the USA and Canada To travel in North America is to face a delicious quandary: over these vast spaces with so many riches, from glittering cities to eccentric small towns and heart-stoppingly beautiful mountains and plains, how to experience as much as possible in limited time? The New York Times has the answer, and has been offering up dream weekends with practical itineraries in its popular weekly "36 Hours" column for over a decade. And since 2011, starting with the publication of 36 Hours: USA & Canada, TASCHEN has been collecting these stories into best-selling books, organized continent by continent. Now, after compiling volumes on Europe, Asia, and the rest of the world, editor Barbara Ireland has come home, with a fully revised and updated second edition of 36 Hours: USA & Canada.* Marquee metropolises like New York, Montreal, and Los Angeles; world-famous natural wonders at Niagara Falls and the Grand Canyon; the hidden charm of Rust Belt cities like Duluth and Detroit—they're all here. And so are 29 new destinations not published in the first edition, from Banff, with its crystal blue glacier-fed lakes, to El Paso, where the border culture spans two states and two countries. For a taste of adventure and a veritable journey throughout the continent, explore 36 Hours in America. 150 North American destinations, from metropolitan hot spots to unexpected hideaways Practical recommendations for over 600 restaurants and 450 hotels Color-coded tabs and ribbons to bookmark your favorite cities in each region Nearly 1,000 photos All stories have been updated and adapted by Barbara Ireland, a veteran Times travel editor Illustrations by Olimpia Zagnoli of Milan, Italy Easy-to-reference indexes Detailed city-by-city maps that pinpoint every stop on your itinerary Also in this series: 36 Hours: Europe* 36 Hours: Latin America & The Caribbean* 36 Hours: Asia & Oceania* 36 Hours: USA & Canada Region Volumes: West Coast, Northeast, Southeast, Midwest & Great Lakes, and Southwest & Rocky Mountains 36 Hours: World (3/36/365) *Also available as ebooks Straddling the equator, Borneo is the third largest island in the world. Largely covered in rainforest, with a magnificent coastline, it is easy to see what attracts visitors. Comprised of Sabah, Sarawak and Brunei, Borneo's unique biodiversity and cultural kaleidoscope appeals to both adventurers and those looking for a unique cultural experience. Updated throughout, this revised guide caters for all with information on how to trek through one of the region's national parks, catch a glimpse of an orang-utan, spend the night in a longhouse, or shop in the bustling markets. From the highlands and islands of Sabah and Sarawak, to the mosques and mysticism of the Sultanate of Brunei, Borneo is a mesmerizing mix of cultures, endangered animals, tropical rainforest and carnivorous plants. This new edition of Borneo provides the most comprehensive information available on the island, from its ethnographic and natural history, to accommodation and tours.

Semantics

Borneo

Presents itineraries for thirty-nine road trips in France, including excursions through Normandy, the Loire Valley, Provence, the Dordogne, and the Alps.

This practical coursebook introduces all the basics of semantics in a simple, step-by-step fashion. Each unit includes short sections of explanation with examples, followed by stimulating practice exercises to complete in the book. Feedback and comment sections follow each exercise to enable students to monitor their progress. No previous background in semantics is assumed, as students begin by discovering the value and fascination of the subject and then move through all key topics in the field, including sense and reference, simple logic, word meaning and interpersonal meaning. New study guides and exercises have been added to the end of each unit to help reinforce and test learning. A completely new unit on non-literal language and metaphor, plus updates throughout the text significantly expand the scope of the original edition to bring it up-to-date with modern teaching of semantics for introductory courses in linguistics as well as intermediate students.

Ireland Before You Die's Irish Bucket List is an inspiring, enthusiastic and insightful travel guide to help you discover the best sites that Ireland has to offer. From climbing Ireland's tallest mountain to a pint in Ireland's oldest pub, this book offers a brief overview of the best things you can do on this magical island. This concise book is perfect for someone who wants to see the best places in Ireland but doesn't know where to begin. It is a stimulating, concise and informative guide to the 101 best places to see in Ireland. The book was written and researched by Stevie Haughey, founder and driving force behind Ireland Before You Die. Since its foundation in 2014, Ireland Before You Die has reached millions of people worldwide, gained over 300,000 followers on social media and encouraged many people to visit and experience the Emerald Isle for themselves. After writing hundreds of articles about the best places to visit in Ireland, having literally over 3 million people reading them and regular requests for a book, Stevie felt it was time to write to write something that brings it all together. The Irish Bucket List is his and Ireland Before You Die's first book. "This book is an accumulation of all that I have seen, learned and experienced on the island of Ireland. It includes the 101 places, in my opinion, you should see in Ireland before you die." Stevie Haughey (Author and Founder of Ireland Before You Die) Ireland Before You Die's Irish Bucket List includes: - A trip to the world's most haunted castle - An ancient wonder older than the pyramids - A ride on Ireland's only cable car - A hike to the top of Ireland's tallest mountain - A pint in Ireland's oldest pub - Much more...
